Closed Mondays and major holidays.

Home to one of America's premier collections, the Chrysler Museum of Art houses over 30,000 works in 62 galleries. Renowned changing exhibitions complement the permanent collection, which is particularly strong in glass (including works by Louis Comfort Tiffany), 17th- and 18th- century European paintings, American Art, and photography. The Museum's considerable glass collection is complemented by a state of the art glass studio that offers insights into the art of glass making and the processes behind the works in the permanent collection. The Chrysler's historic Moses Myers House and the Norfolk History Museum at the Willoughby-Baylor House in downtown Norfolk provide a glimpse into the area's rich past.

The Virginia Museum of Contemporary Art (Virginia MOCA), is an accredited, non-collecting, non-profit institution which exists to foster awareness, exploration and understanding of the significant art of our time. Through excellence and diversity in our changing exhibitions and educational programming, MOCA stimulates critical thinking and dialogue throughout the Hampton Roads community.

Regularly changing exhibitions feature painting, sculpture, photography, glass, video and other visual media from internationally acclaimed artists as well as artists of national and regional renown. By balancing its four primary activities - gallery exhibitions, studio art classes, educational outreach programs and outdoor art shows - MOCA seeks to involve a diverse regional public in the rich and active language of contemporary visual art. By operating at a national standard, MOCA received accreditation from the American Alliance of Museums in 2010.
