

Pérez Art Museum Miami Teen Arts Council

Pérez Art Museum Miami (PAMM) is accepting applications from high school sophomores, juniors, and seniors for the PAMM Teen Arts Council (PTAC). Members will help fulfill the museum's mission to improve the quality of life in Miami-Dade County through education and interaction with the art of today. Through mentorship, ambassadorship, and digital citizenship, teen members will creatively interpret and respond to art in order to engage a local and global audience.

Please fill out the form below and send completed applications via email attachment to education@pamm.org (preferred method); or return a printed copy to Visitor Services desk at PAMM 1103 Biscayne Blvd, Miami, FL 33132

You can find a digital version of the application here: <http://pamm.org/teenartcouncil>

PTAC Requirements

Up to twelve high school students will be able to participate. After completing an application, selected nominees will interview for their positions.

To apply for PTAC, candidates must meet these requirements:

1. Be high school sophomores, juniors, or seniors WE NEED SOPHOMORES!
2. Submit a completed application by ~~July 6, 2018~~ Extended to July 13, 2018
3. There are no requirements in terms of specific technological or artistic skills, but students who prefer hands-on learning will benefit.

Regular weekly meetings will begin in September. As the yearly cycle ends, helping nominate the next group and planning activities for the coming year will be an important task. Future members will begin in September and remain active until the end of each school year. PTAC membership may be renewed based on performance during the previous year.

4. PTAC meets every Thursday from 3:30 - 6:30pm.
5. Occasional Saturdays and event days are required beyond regular meeting times.
6. PAMM takes all school calendars and transportation into consideration when programming.
7. PTAC members are expected to follow the rules and guidelines of the program, participate in weekly meetings and occasional events, fulfill solo and group responsibilities such as art assignments, journalistic essays in written, audio and video format, and develop teen centered events.
