Pérez Art Museum Miami Celebrates Second Annual Family Fundraiser, KIDS JAMM at PAMM

(MIAMI, FL — October 19, 2021) — This past Sunday, Pérez Art Museum Miami (PAMM) celebrated KIDS JAMM at PAMM, the museum’s second annual family fundraiser. Benefiting the museum’s vital arts education programs, the event featured art making activities with renowned multidisciplinary artists, live music, refreshments, performances, and special guests. The event invited families and children to forge a deeper connection with PAMM, the creative process, and living artists.

Co-chaired by Suzy Buckley Woodward, Jessica Plair Sirmans, Sloane Spanierman, and Alexa Wolman, the event included lively family-friendly and socially distant activations, including Drag Queen Story Hour with Angel Elektra and Shay D'Pines Royale Gaga, mindfulness and dancing activities, a prize wheel, an outdoor installation by Antonia Wright, and a performance by Ayala Royal Ballet. Attendees included City of Miami Mayor Francis Suarez, model Karolina Kurkova, former NFL football player Brett Romberg, Anshu and Nitin Motwani, Morgan Shara, Jonathan and Missy Babicka, and more.
KIDS JAMM has become one of PAMM’s most anticipated events for families and gives a unique opportunity for children to work directly with some of Miami’s best known artists, as well as artists from around the country, all while raising necessary funds to support PAMM’s arts education programs. This year’s participating artists included Cristina Lei Rodriguez, José Bedia, Kelley Johnson, Antonia Wright, and more.

ABOUT PAMM
Pérez Art Museum Miami (PAMM), led by Director Franklin Sirmans, promotes artistic expression and the exchange of ideas, advancing public knowledge and appreciation of art, architecture, and design, and reflecting the diverse community of its pivotal geographic location at the crossroads of the Americas. The 37-year-old South Florida institution, formerly known as Miami Art Museum (MAM), opened a new building, designed by world-renowned architects Herzog & de Meuron, on December 4, 2013 in Downtown Miami’s Maurice A. Ferré Park. The facility is a state-of-the-art model for sustainable museum design and progressive programming and features 200,000 square feet of indoor and outdoor program space with flexible galleries; shaded outdoor verandas; a waterfront restaurant and bar; a museum shop; and an education center with a library, media lab, and classroom spaces.

Accredited by the American Alliance of Museums, Pérez Art Museum Miami (PAMM) is sponsored in part by the State of Florida, Department of State, Division of Arts and Culture and the Florida Council on Arts and Culture. Support is provided by the Miami-Dade County Department of Cultural Affairs and the Cultural Affairs Council, the Miami-Dade County Mayor and Board of County Commissioners. Additional support is provided by the City of Miami and the Miami OMNI Community Redevelopment Agency (OMNI CRA). Pérez Art Museum Miami is an accessible facility.
