(MIAMI, FL — February X, 2022) — Pérez Art Museum Miami (PAMM) is pleased to present the ninth annual Art of the Party, the museum’s largest fundraiser of the year, on Saturday, March 12, 2022. The event will feature an in-person outdoor dinner, entertainment under the stars, and the announcement of the awardee of the fourth annual Pérez Prize, which honors an artist for artistic achievement. The evening will be co-chaired by Alexa and Adam Wolman and Jessica and Franklin Sirmans.

Funds from Art of the Party directly support the museum’s robust arts education program, the largest of its kind outside the Miami-Dade County Public Schools system with over 215,000 children served since opening in December 2013, while also funding PAMM’s broader mission as Miami’s flagship art institution.

“Art of the Party continues to be one of my favorite evenings, where we come together to celebrate an institution that mirrors the spirit of this city and its community,” said PAMM Director Franklin Sirmans. “Education is at the heart of everything we do—from school tours and outreach programs to our robust digital education experiences, we take pride in bringing art to thousands of people, in Miami and around the world. Jessica and I are thrilled to co-chair this event with longtime PAMM supporters Adam and Alexa."

The evening will evoke the Pop Art theme of PAMM’s upcoming special exhibition, Marisol and Warhol Take New York. The event features two special Art of the Party experiences conceptualized by Lee Brian Schrager. The dinner portion, Chef’s Table, will feature a culinary experience by Constellation Culinary Group hosted on the museum’s East Portico with live music by Latin Grammy-nominated artist Cris Delanno. The after party, Remix, will include dancing on PAMM’s waterfront terrace, complete with cocktails, hors d’oeuvres, and decadent desserts.

ABOUT PAMM
Pérez Art Museum Miami (PAMM), led by Director Franklin Sirmans, promotes artistic expression and the exchange of ideas, advancing public knowledge and appreciation of art, architecture, and design, and reflecting the diverse community of its pivotal geographic location at the crossroads of the Americas. The nearly 40-year-old South Florida institution, formerly known as Miami Art Museum (MAM), opened a new building, designed by world-renowned architects Herzog & de Meuron, on December 4, 2013 in Downtown Miami's Maurice A. Ferré Park. The facility is a state-of-the-art model for sustainable museum design and progressive programming and features 200,000 square feet of indoor and outdoor program space with flexible galleries; shaded outdoor verandas; a waterfront restaurant and bar; a museum shop; and an education center with a library, media lab, and classroom spaces.
