(MIAMI, FL — October 7, 2021) — Pérez Art Museum Miami (PAMM) is pleased to announce the second annual KIDS JAMM at PAMM, a family friendly fundraising event on Sunday, October 17 from 10am–1pm that features art making activities with renowned multidisciplinary artists, live music, refreshments, performances, and special guests. The event is designed to forge a deeper connection with PAMM, the creative process, and living artists, including Cristina Lei Rodriguez, José Bedia, Kelley Johnson, Antonia Wright, and more.

KIDS JAMM is a rare opportunity for kids and their grown-ups to interact and create with some of Miami's best known artists, as well as artists from around the country, all while raising necessary funds to support PAMM's arts education programs. Tickets can be purchased here.

KIDS JAMM at PAMM supports the museum's arts and education programs.

Please note that KIDS JAMM will be held outside with social distancing precautions in place.

ABOUT PAMM

Pérez Art Museum Miami (PAMM), led by Director Franklin Sirmans, promotes artistic expression and the exchange of ideas, advancing public knowledge and appreciation of art, architecture, and design, and reflecting the diverse community of its pivotal geographic location at the crossroads of the Americas. The 37-year-old South Florida institution, formerly known as Miami Art Museum (MAM), opened a new building, designed by world-renowned architects Herzog & de Meuron, on December 4, 2013 in Downtown Miami's Maurice A. Ferré Park. The facility is a state-of-the-art model for sustainable museum design and progressive programming and features 200,000 square feet of indoor and outdoor program space with flexible galleries; shaded outdoor verandas; a waterfront restaurant and bar; a museum shop; and an education center with a library, media lab, and classroom spaces.
