(MIAMI, FL — September 23, 2020) — Pérez Art Museum Miami (PAMM) is excited to present a new series of live virtual studio visits with local Miami artists, who will be joined by PAMM curators for an intimate look at the artists' studio practice. The series will kick off on Thursday, September 24 at 7pm with artists GeoVanna Gonzalez and Najja Moon and PAMM Associate Curator Jennifer Inacio over Zoom. Register here.

GeoVanna Gonzalez and Najja Moon will discuss and debut the fourth episode of their conversation series "Aesthetics of Mobility," which takes place in their mobile project space. In this episode, they reflect on time—what it reveals, what it changes—and discuss how the perpetual nature of this project has impacted their practice and their lives.

Though PAMM remains closed to the public, the museum has continued to serve its community and support local artists through a variety of online programs, including Virtual Local Views, online art talks, and Free Second Saturdays. More information about PAMM's Digital Museum can be found online here.

About Pérez Art Museum Miami

Pérez Art Museum Miami (PAMM), led by Director Franklin Sirmans, promotes artistic expression and the exchange of ideas, advancing public knowledge and appreciation of art, architecture, and design, and reflecting the diverse community of its pivotal geographic location at the crossroads of the Americas. The 36-year-old South Florida institution, formerly known as Miami Art Museum (MAM), opened a new building, designed by world-renowned architects Herzog & de Meuron, on December 4, 2013 in Downtown Miami's Maurice A. Ferré Park. The facility is a state-of-the-art model for sustainable museum design and progressive programming and features 200,000 square feet of indoor and outdoor program space with flexible galleries; shaded outdoor verandas; a waterfront restaurant and bar; a museum shop; and an education center with a library, media lab, and classroom spaces.

Accredited by the American Alliance of Museums, Pérez Art Museum Miami (PAMM) is sponsored in part by the State of Florida, Department of State, Division of Cultural Affairs, and the Florida Council on Arts and Culture. Support is provided by the Miami-Dade County Department of Cultural Affairs and the Cultural Affairs Council, the Miami-Dade County Mayor and Board of County Commissioners. Additional support is provided by the City of Miami and the Miami OMNI Community Redevelopment Agency (OMNI CRA). Pérez Art Museum Miami is an accessible facility.
