

Phillip and Patricia Frost Museum of Science and Pérez Art Museum Miami join forces to celebrate Museum Store Sunday on Knight Plaza

Locals and visitors are invited to shop and support the Museum Community Market on Nov. 25 & Nov. 26

MIAMI (Nov. 14, 2023) - Two of Miami's most iconic cultural institutions, Phillip and Patricia Frost Museum of Science (Frost Science) and Pérez Art Museum Miami (PAMM), will join forces for a festive weekend market celebrating Museum Store Sunday on Saturday, November 25 and Sunday, November 26 on Knight Plaza, the shared public space between both museums. In partnership with Miami Friendors, an organization that creates opportunities for local vendors and small business owners to engage with the Miami community, the Museum Community Market will feature shops from local artisans, craftsmen, and makers who specialize in decor, fashion, art, design, food, and more.

Museum Store Sunday (Nov. 26) is a global initiative that offers inspired shopping at museums and cultural institutions. Throughout the day, guests can shop and support both institutions by visiting their pop-up stores, enjoying a special science demonstration, and participating in interactive art and science activities.

The special market will take place from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. each day and will take place on the outdoor Knight Plaza. Guests who purchase from the Science Store and PAMM Shop will be gifted a free Museum Store Sunday tote and enjoy 15 percent off all purchases made Nov. 25 & Nov. 26, both online and onsite.

Admission to the Museum Community Market is free and does not grant museum admission. For more information and tickets to Frost Science visit www.frostscience.org or follow @FrostScience on Instagram. For more information and tickets about PAMM visit www.pamm.org or follow @pamm on Instagram.

About the Phillip and Patricia Frost Museum of Science

Located in Downtown Miami's Maurice A. Ferré Park, the Phillip and Patricia Frost Museum of Science is a leading-edge science museum dedicated to sharing the power of science, sparking wonder and investigation, and fueling innovation for the future. Sitting on four acres, the 250,000-square-foot museum is divided into four distinct buildings: the Frost Planetarium, Aquarium, and the North and West Wings. At Frost Science, visitors can explore the world of science, technology, engineering, and math (STEM) in an experiential setting with interactive exhibitions and unique shows. The Phillip and Patricia

Frost Museum of Science is supported by the Miami-Dade County Department of Cultural Affairs and the Cultural Affairs Council, the Miami-Dade County Mayor and Board of County Commissioners of Miami-Dade County. This project is supported by the Building Better Communities Bond Program and the City of Miami. Sponsored in part by the State of Florida, Department of State, Division of Arts and Culture, the Florida Council on Arts and Culture, and the National Endowment for the Arts. The museum is accredited by the American Alliance of Museums, is an affiliate of the Smithsonian Institution and a member of the Association of Science and Technology Centers. About Pérez Art Museum Miami

Pérez Art Museum Miami (PAMM), led by Director Franklin Sirmans, promotes artistic expression and the exchange of ideas, advancing public knowledge and appreciation of art, architecture, and design, and reflecting the diverse community of its pivotal geographic location at the crossroads of the Americas. The nearly 40-year-old South Florida institution, formerly known as Miami Art Museum (MAM), opened a new building, designed by world-renowned architects Herzog & de Meuron, on December 4, 2013 in Downtown Miami's Maurice A. Ferré Park. The facility is a state-of-the-art model for sustainable museum design and progressive programming and features 200,000 square feet of indoor and outdoor program space with flexible galleries; shaded outdoor verandas; a waterfront restaurant and bar; a museum shop; and an education center with a library, media lab, and classroom spaces.
