(Miami, FL — February 21, 2025) — On Wednesday, February 19, Pérez Art Museum Miami (PAMM) celebrated its 16th annual Corporate Luncheon, presented by Constellation Culinary Group, which honored Nick Korniloff on behalf of Art Miami Show Group for their long-standing commitment to PAMM and their dedication to strengthening South Florida's cultural community. The museum's established event brought nearly 300 of South Florida's business community leaders to celebrate their vital role in championing arts and culture, and hosted them for an afternoon of networking, private gallery exploration, and conversation.

Guests dined on a gourmet strolling lunch overlooking Biscayne Bay and perused PAMM's galleries. This year's program focused on the intersection of sports and art, with a special video featuring Thomas Anthony Abraham, Yasmine Gahed, Pedro A. Guerrero, and Kevin Love.

Funds raised at this year's Corporate Luncheon directly benefited PAMM's arts education program, which is dedicated to engaging the Miami community with a vast array of arts programs and experiences. The museum has the largest arts education program in Miami-Dade County outside of the public school system, with more than 47,000 children participating in these programs each year.

ABOUT PAMM

Pérez Art Museum Miami (PAMM), led by Director Franklin Sirmans, promotes artistic expression and the exchange of ideas, advancing public knowledge and appreciation of art, architecture, and design, and reflecting the diverse community of its pivotal geographic location at the crossroads of the Americas. The 41-year-old South Florida institution, formerly known as Miami Art Museum (MAM), opened a new building, designed by world-renowned architects Herzog & de Meuron, on December 4, 2013 in Downtown Miami's Maurice A. Ferré Park. The facility is a state-of-the-art model for sustainable museum design and progressive programming and features 200,000 square feet of indoor and outdoor program space with flexible galleries; shaded outdoor verandas; a waterfront restaurant and bar; a museum shop; and an education center with a library, media lab, and classroom spaces.
